Exemptions:

The Business Manager/Principal may grant a temporary exemption upon receiving written application from, or following a discussion with the parents/guardians.

The Principal may grant a permanent exemption in relation to head wear on religious grounds.

Non-Compliance:

Students who attend school out of uniform will be issued with an Out of Uniform Note which requires parents to give a reason for their child being out of uniform. The schools welfare officer will keep track of these forms.

The principal will request an interview with parents of students who are regularly out of uniform.

Uniform Shop:

The uniform shop operates from the school and uniforms can be purchased from the office at reasonable prices. Regular opening times will be posted on the Uniform Board. If you have any queries or need a special time, please contact the school's office. Orders can also be left at the office.

Second Hand Uniform Shop:

The Uniform Shop sells second hand uniforms at $3 per item. We would appreciate any donations of second hand uniforms no longer required by families that are leaving the school community.

EVALUATION

The Uniform Policy was ratified in December 2012 and will be reviewed as part of the school's three year cycle.
